

Forever Care

All the peace of mind you need that your pets will be cared for if they outlive you

We find the loving home your pets deserve

Forever Care is a free service from us here at the Scottish SPCA. We promise to care for your pet(s) and find them a loving, new home if they outlive you.

- It's completely free of charge.
- You can register as many pets as you have. There are no specific requirements and no age limits.
- We can care for all pets – from dogs and cats to gerbils, lizards and budgies.

To register today, just complete the attached form and return it to us at the address at the bottom of the page.

Did you know...

Forever Care is funded through generous donations from supporters, including gifts in Wills. To make a donation visit: scottishspca.org/support/donate or to find out more about leaving a gift in your Will email legacy@scottishspca.org.

Your questions answered

How will my family know that I have Forever Care?

You should notify your next of kin, family, friends or neighbours of your wishes for your pet(s). They can phone us on 03000 999 999 and we'll arrange to collect your pet(s).

How long will it take to pick up my pet(s)?

We'll pick up your animal(s) as soon as we can after receiving a call from your next of kin. Normally this happens within 24 hours. Your pet(s) will be taken to one of our rescue and rehoming centres. This is usually the centre nearest to where you live.

How long will my pet stay in a rehoming centre before going to a new home?

Your pet(s) will stay in our care until we've found the right new home. Rest assured, your pet will be well looked after by our dedicated staff and volunteers until they leave our care and go to their new family.

If your question isn't answered please get in touch by calling us on 03000 999 999 or visit scottishspca.org/forevercare.

Will you be able to keep my animals together when they go to their new home?

Let us know on your Forever Care form if it's important to you that your animals stay together. We'll always try to keep your pets together and would only separate them in the best interests of their welfare.

How will my Executor know if I have signed up my pet(s) to Forever Care?

When you register for Forever Care, you'll get a welcome letter and a special Forever Care card. You might want to keep it with your Will. It's also a good idea to let a close friend or family member know about Forever Care if you're unable to tell your Executor of your wishes.

Register for Forever Care

If you'd like your pet(s) to be cared for and rehomed through our Forever Care service, please return this form to: Scottish SPCA, Kingseat Road, Halbeath, Dunfermline KY11 8RY. Please note: Should an animal be too aggressive to be rehomed safely or have a disabling or terminal condition which will cause ongoing suffering, a vet may advise that the animal should be put to sleep. If an animal is in pain this may happen immediately. However, wherever possible we will contact any next of kin before a decision is taken.

5. Will wording

We recommend that you add the below wording to your Will to ensure your wishes for your pet(s) are carried out. However, provided you've registered for Forever Care, we will still be able to collect your pet(s) once we've been notified by your next of kin.

"If I have made no alternative provisions for the care of any pet which belongs to me, I direct my Executors to notify the Scottish Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Kingseat Road, Halbeath, Dunfermline KY11 8RY, ("the Society") (Telephone number 03000 999 999) and request the Society to remove the pet(s), take full responsibility for their welfare and, at the Society's complete discretion, rehome them in a suitable home in accordance with the rehoming policies and practices of the Society applicable at the time."
